Available : July 2010 ISBN : 978-0-9823583-5-1 Never before has any book been published containing photographs of all of the US Navy battleships that fought during the Second World War in original period color photographs. It took many years of collecting these historic color images to complete this book. Most of the photos have never been previously published and those that have, not to the level of quality provided in this book. For the first time, one will have a view of what these magnificent warships looked like in real color. All the photos in this book are historic photos, none are from modern times. ## Customer Reviews

The WARSHIP PICTORIAL series is one of the class acts in military history publishing. Their releases are informative, well-illustrated, quality publications. USN BATTLESHIPS IN COLOR, which was published in 2010, is an excellent example of the work done by Steve Wiper & Company. The pix, many of which are full-page, are presented in a roughly chronological arrangement. So the reader is presented with various BBs in the different camouflage schemes they carried from 1940 to war's end. All the 'big boys' are represented: Pennsylvania, New Mexico, West Virginia, Idaho, Wisconsin, Texas, Nevada, New York, Missouri, etc. in long-view or close-up shots. Most show the ships underway or dockside. There's a fair number of close-up photographs of armament - the main turrets, 40mm and 20mm gun tubs, etc. The pix are well-reproduced and knowledgeably captioned. In short, USN BATTLESHIPS IN COLOR is one of the very best WARSHIP PICTORIAL books I've seen, a 72-page treasure trove of rare, full-color Kodachrome shots of America's battlewagons! Highly recommended.

The photos of the fleet before Pearl Harbor are wonderful and I had not seen them before. There are many WWII photos mostly of the Iowas. I am delighted with the book.
